

Study Space on Campus – For Currently Registered Students Only

To support the educational efforts of students, the University of Chicago Yuen Campus is open for student self-study use between the hours of 8:00am to 8:00pm, throughout the week (including public holiday).

All currently registered students, undergraduate and graduate, can now access on Campus space for individual or group study purposes.

Non-Booth AXP students:

- Prior reservation is not required.
- Students are encouraged to email Gigi Yan at gigiyan@uchicago.edu, Senior Manager – Programs and Special Projects, before visiting the Campus to ensure space is available.
- When visiting the Campus, students will need to verify their UChicago student status by showing their UChicago Student ID card.

Booth AXP students:

- Prior reservation is not required.
- Student are required to show their Yuen Campus Building Access Card upon arrival. When visiting the Campus, students will be able to tap their Yuen Campus Building Access Card on the Campus main entrance door's security system panel to gain access into the Campus building. Students may also use UChicago student card to gain access to the building by showing their student card to the security guard.

Please note that capacity is limited and that the Campus may not be able to satisfy all requests for study rooms. Study rooms are available on first come first served basis. There may be certain dates when the Campus cannot accommodate self-study visits because it is pre-booked for other programs, events, activities, or the study spaces are filled.
