Register HK Event: When the World Went South: Contemporary Art Practice in the Global South and the Making of Our Times (Jun 28, 6:30pm)

When the World Went South:
Contemporary Art Practice in the Global South and the Making of Our Times
世界南方的當代藝術實踐和我們時代的形成
June 28, 2023 | 6:30pm HKT

Mark Philip Bradley
Bernadotte E. Schmidt Distinguished Service Professor of History
Faculty Director of the Pozen Family Center for Human Rights
The University of Chicago

The rise of powerful voices from the global South in the late twentieth century brought new ideas about democracy, the aims of economic growth, the nature of inequality, the making of restorative justice, and the critical place of sustainability in preserving the biosphere along with novel ways of seeing the world through literature and the visual arts.

In this talk, Professor Mark Bradley will focus on the growing centrality of the South in contemporary visual culture through a consideration of the transnational circuits shaping contemporary art practice in Southeast Asia in the 1990s. Join the talk on June 28 at 6:30pm in person or via Zoom now.
