Register HK Event: When the World Went South: Contemporary Art Practice in the Global South and the Making of Our Times (Jun 28, 6:30pm HKT)

The rise of powerful voices from the global South in the late twentieth century brought new ideas about democracy, the aims of economic growth, the nature of inequality, the making of restorative justice, and the critical place of sustainability in preserving the biosphere along with novel ways of seeing the world through literature and the visual arts.

In this talk, Professor Mark Bradley will focus on the growing centrality of the South in contemporary visual culture through a consideration of the transnational circuits shaping contemporary art practice in Southeast Asia in the 1990s. Join the talk on June 28 at 6:30pm via Zoom now.

Register HK Webinar: "Billionaire Secrets": Bias In The Luxury Real Estate Market (Jul 13, 8:30pm HKT)

Luxury real estate is expanding rapidly in major global cities around the world. But who can afford the exorbitant prices and are the residences occupied or left empty and maintained only for investment purposes? How does the top one percent of the one percent gain access to such luxury and are the units really luxury at all?

Join us for this unique program on July 13 at 8:30pm HKT, which will feature the first "billionaire" to expose subtle and systemic bias in the luxury real estate market that determines who gets top-of-the-line home amenities and bragging rights for the highest floors with the best views.
