Transplant Ethics: Looking Forward (Mar 24)

Co-organizers:

Transplant Ethics: Looking Forward
 March 24, 2018

This year's conference is going to move past the ethical issues of the past that limited transplantation in China and start addressing the issues that still challenge ethical principles in China and the United States. You are most welcome to join us for the discussion on specific topics emphasized on different approaches to these issues across Western and Chinese cultures.
