The End of Art (June 23, 1pm HKT)

Panelist:
Alice Mong
Daisy Wang
Pauline Yao, AM'98

Moderator:
Mark Barnekow, MBA'88

Is it the end of art or just the beginning? Before COVID-19, art was saturating every aspect of our lives online and off. Now, during the COVID pandemic, museums and galleries are closed and may never reopen and the economy is contracting, restricting prospects for artists and collectors. While prospects for art appear dismal, do we need art more than ever before? Our expert panelists will bring decades of experience and their professional perspectives to this fascinating topic. They will help us understand the future of the art scene in Hong Kong and around the globe.

Join our Executive Director Mark Barnekow, MBA'88 for an inspiring conversation with our guests Alice Mong (Asia Society Hong Kong Center), Daisy Wang (Hong Kong Palace Museum) and Pauline Yao, AM'98 (M+).
