Building Portfolios with Impact: Workshop on Creating and Managing Impact Investment Strategies

The Hong Kong Jockey Club Programme on Social Innovation

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

CHICAGO BOOTH
The University of Chicago Booth School of Business

Funded by:
 The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust

From January 20 to February 2, The Hong Kong Jockey Club Programme on Social Innovation and the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) Business School will host a special, four-part workshop to engage impact investors, NGO executives, family offices, and other stakeholders. Through interactive virtual content, attendees will be equipped with the frameworks, skills, and networks necessary to begin making impact investments.

This program is intended for people involved in investment, social impact, or philanthropy, who have an interest in creating and managing impact investment. Participants in different roles, including family offices and foundation professionals, private wealth advisors, asset management analysts, hedge fund managers, and high net-worth individuals, will find the program relevant. The ideal candidates will have some knowledge of impact investing.
