Executive MBA Webinar Series

The University of Chicago Booth School of Business launched the world's first Executive MBA program in 1943. Today, we bring The Chicago Approach to more than 200 Executive MBA students in Chicago, London, and Hong Kong every year, all taught by our award-winning faculty.

Our Hong Kong campus connects successful executives from across the Asia-Pacific region, bringing practical management insights and diverse industry perspectives to the classroom.

We invite you to join our upcoming Executive MBA events to find out what makes our Executive MBA program unique and how it will impact you and your career.

Calculating the ROI of an MBA

A rigorous MBA program like Chicago Booth's requires a significant commitment of time, money and effort. Will the investment be worth it?

Learn how to quantify the impact of an MBA at the University of Chicago by joining our "Calculating the ROI of an MBA". Led by Kathleen Fitzgerald, Adjunct Associate Professor of Strategic Management, this session will provide a framework to determine if this commitment is right for you. Register for the ROI Webinar, January 30, 9am HKT.

Executive Assessment (EA) Webinar Series

Chicago Booth has created an exclusive, one-of-a-kind webinar series designed to help you prepare for the Executive Assessment (EA) test. There are two parts to the series—one focusing on the Integrated Reasoning section of the test, the other on the Quantitative Reasoning section. Taught by Kathleen Fitzgerald, Adjunct Associate Professor of Strategic Management, each session features a deep dive into the material so you will be prepared for the exam and for the program.
