Cross Currents: Contemporary Art from New Delhi to Beijing (Feb 17)

How does contemporary art intersect with South, Southeast, and East Asia? How is it defined and contested across these regions? How do new geographic formations and constellations—global to region to state—provide alternative methodologies for studying contemporary art? Join Carol Yinghua Lu (Inside-Out Museum Beijing), Adele Tan (National Gallery Singapore), Veeranganakumari Solanki (Independent Curator and Writer) and Orianna Cacchione (UChicago Smart Museum of Art) on February 17 (Wednesday) at 8:30pm HKT to discuss these pressing contemporary issues.

“Interpreting Politics: Situated Knowledge, India, and the Rudolph Legacy” Book Launch and Panel Discussion (Feb 26)

In careers that spanned six decades, Lloyd and Susanne Rudolph's rigorous and remarkably empathetic scholarship produced seminal insights about India's politics. In this volume Interpreting Politics: Situated Knowledge, India, and the Rudolph Legacy, authors pay tribute to the Rudolphs' scholarship by examining its contribution to their own cutting-edge research as they advance the frontiers of the study of Indian politics and social science in large. Join UChicago faculty Professor Paul Staniland, alumni Kamal Sadiq and other guests for the book launch and panel discussion jointly hosted by UChicago Center in Delhi, American Institute of Indian Studies, and Oxford University Press.
