Even if you haven't watched Squid Game, you know it's the talk of the world (definitely not just a town). The show is following Parasite's footsteps of being the first non-English language film dominating the Oscars, just that Squid Game is topping Netflix's charts in 94 countries. Connecting the world with one common topic to talk about.

What would sociology, cultural and film studies experts have to say about Squid Game and Parasite? What are some details they have noticed that we can learn from? Join Episode 3 of The Korean Wave mini-series to learn more about how these two non-English language shows swept the world off its feet.
