Breaking news of Chinese real estate giant Evergrande's more than $300 billion USD debt has hovered over global financial markets since early this fall. What's the fate of Evergrande going to be under the new campaign for "common prosperity" in China? Join our expert panel on Nov 2, 8pm HKT, who will discuss the history and social dynamics of China's real estate market, the nature and implications of the crisis to China and beyond.

This program is under the new Yuen Campus Series China on the Move, which will provide objective academic insights into current events shaping China and its future as a global actor. Stay tuned to learn more about what's really happening within China and whether those events will continue to shape all of our lives.
