Meet Dean Boyer at Alumni Reception (Aug 24)

You are cordially invited to a networking reception with current UChicago students visiting Hong Kong as part of the annual UChicago Careers in Business student trek. Featuring a special appearance by John W. Boyer, Dean of the College, who will make a congratulatory toast to the students, this reception will offer a valuable opportunity to connect with the University community in Hong Kong and to meet some of the next generation of promising students from the College. Alumni, parents and students are all welcome.
