Register HK Event: Nov. 6, 9:30am - Presidential Election 2024 – Global Virtual Gathering

Join our UChicago faculty and submit your questions this morning, Wednesday, November 6 at 9:30 am HKT, for a discussion of what they are expecting from the Presidential election and how it may impact the lives of Americans and people around the world.

The UChicago Hong Kong campus has invited UChicago faculty from several disciplines to share their views real time as votes from all 50 states are tabulated.

This program will be live on Zoom only and will not be recorded for later release.

Register HK Event: The Resilience of American Democracy (Dec 5)

On December 5th at 8:30pm, after the November election, please join our illustrious University of Chicago political science professors for a joint round-table discussion.

They will discuss election results, the immediate aftermath, and where things are heading including prospects for political violence, geopolitical and international economic implications, the impact of disinformation, and consequences for US parties and American democracy itself.

This is a rare opportunity to see what “surprised” our UChicago leading experts as they consider the impact of this momentous election.
