Register HK Event: The Resilience of American Democracy (Dec 5)

The Resilience of American Democracy

美國民主的韌性

Dec 5, 2024 | 8:30pm HKT

Tonight in 1 Hour, please join our esteemed University of Chicago political science faculty for a round-table discussion addressing post-presidential election results, the immediate aftermath of the election, and where things are heading in the U.S. and globally.

This is a rare opportunity to hear from our UChicago leading experts as they consider the impact of this momentous election and help us understand where things are headed in America as Donald Trump prepares to take office again.

REGISTER HK WEBINAR

Lecture & Concert | Refugee and Renaissance Man: Solomon Bard (1916-2014) in Hong Kong (Dec 12)

The University of Chicago campus in Hong Kong will present a lecture and a concert to complement its ongoing exhibition "Refugee and Renaissance Man: Solomon Bard (1916-2014) in Hong Kong" funded by the Hong Kong Jockey Club.

The exhibition curator, Professor Kenneth Pomeranz, will give a lecture about Bard's contributions to Hong Kong throughout the decades. As befits Bard's own life – in which he was born in Russia, moved as a child to Northeast China, spent 60 years in Hong Kong, and eventually wound up in Australia – the event will showcase a variety of music written in Europe, China, and Australia, and performed on both Western and Eastern instruments.
