^ Kindly note that no parking spaces are available on the campus.

This symposium explores how Digital Humanities (DH) methods can enrich the study of hanwen / kanbun / hanmun texts. Adopting a broad definition, we consider hanwen / kanbun / hanmun as traditions that, though rooted in diverse cultural and linguistic contexts, share a common focus on the study and creation of Literary Sinitic works.

This event is sponsored by Nexus Asia, a program initiated by the UChicago Hong Kong Campus dedicated to collaborating with UChicago PhD alumni and their institutions throughout the Asia Pacific region. In addition to facilitating research, Nexus Asia plans to engage its alumni on its UChicago Hong Kong campus with workshops, lectures and events for academics and the general public.
